

Long Island Boat Show

Tired of the winter? Already thinking about things to do this summer? Well we have the perfect remedy for those winter blues. The New York Marine Trades Association (NYMTA) presents to you the 51st Annual Long Island Boat Show at the Nassau Veterans Memorial Coliseum. The boat shows opening weekend is Saturday February 2 and Sunday February 3rd. It will resume Wednesday February 6th and run through Sunday February 10th. Adult tickets for those coming during the week will be discounted and sold for $5.00 at the Nassau Coliseum box office.

This year's show will feature the return of Staten Island Boat Sales of Freeport. Their display will include a Silverton 33' Stateroom Convertible, the newest addition to the Silverton line and a Cruisers Yachts 330 Express. The show will also feature sport fishers, performance boats, inflatables, personal watercraft, engines, marine electronics and on the spot boat financing and insurance.

The Nassau Veteran's Memorial Coliseum is located on Hempstead Turnpike in Uniondale, Long Island. Tickets are reasonably priced at $10 for adults, $8 for seniors, $3 for Kids 6-12, 5 and under FREE. You can avoid the line and purchase discounted advanced tickets online by visiting nyboatshows.com. For more show information visit nyboatshows.com or call 631.691.7050.
