

ALL NEW SHOW MAKES U.S. DEBUT
Brings the Beauty, Magic & Music of Ireland to Long Island

(February 27, 2008, Long Island, NY) CELTIC THUNDER, a brand-new show created and produced by Sharon Browne, will make its U.S. debut. The tour hits Long Island on November 2, 2008. Tickets on sale now through PBS. Please call 212.560.3521 for more information.

See CELTIC THUNDER first on public television specials airing on local stations nationwide in March 2008, then see it live at Nassau Coliseum.

Filmed in Dublin the special features five male vocalists (ranging from 14 to 40 - Damian McGinty, Keith Harkin, Ryan Kelly, Paul Byrom, and George Donaldson) performing an eclectic mix of songs, ranging from the traditional "Mountains of Mourne" and "Come By the Hills" to international hits such as "Brothers in Arms" and "Desperado," as well as original compositions by CELTIC THUNDER's legendary musical director and composer Phil Coulter.

The CD/DVD is being released by DECCA (Universal in March) and a 50-date tour commences October 3, 2008. The magic and beauty of Ireland will then be brought to Long Island in the live tour version of the musically rich CELTIC THUNDER.

For further information about this brand new show visit www.celtictThunder.ie.

For more information about the general ticket on sale keep checking www.nassaucoliseum.com for the latest information or sign up for Coliseum Connection, our free e-newsletter and have event information emailed directly to you.

This is an AEGLive concert.

###