“The Harlem Globetrotters are the unbeatable global entertainment experience that emotionally connects to and thrills every member of the family,” said Globetrotters CEO Kurt Schneider. “We are extremely excited about the upcoming tour and bringing our unique brand of family entertainment to Long Island.”

The “Magic As Ever” World Tour will carry on the Globetrotters’ tradition of:

- Displaying amazing basketball skills and wizardry, with a focus on family entertainment.
- Featuring an autograph session at the end of nearly every game, allowing fans a chance to get autographs and interact with their favorite Globetrotter.
- Becoming involved in the communities they play in by visiting local schools, hospitals and other youth-based organizations.
- Entertaining crowds with the antics of their beloved mascot, “Globie,” along with Super G and Big G.

Celebrating their 82nd consecutive season of touring the world, the Harlem Globetrotters have played in 118 countries on six continents, entertaining over 125 million fans and crossing barriers between cultures, societies and people from all walks of life. In 2002, the organization was only the fifth team to be inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.
